

7. Jesus the Anointed One will rise from the dead and then be loved as the King of kings and Lord of lords in this world. To Him alone, throughout all the Church, worship is directed. This will come to pass through the power that is in the literal meaning of the Word. In this prophesy the term bar (corn) will be understood for its literal meaning as hempseed which is known within the Church but hidden now in its highest celestial knowledge, as is the spiritual meaning of the Word. These truths will come forth from out of the Word by the Divine light of Heaven and effect a sudden change of state within the Church from obscurity to truth of doctrine that brings in them close by but outside. Truth is good existing in a form intelligible to the understanding. Truth comes to be joined to good when a person finds joy in doing well to the neighbor. This love of neighbor within the Church will grow exponentially.

Jesus the Anointed One is the One given to man to know as the Redeemer and Savior. He alone will universally be seen as a Divine Man the Lord God throughout eternity. All men on this planet will experience a dramatic, permanent change in consciousness by these Divine Truths. The drug war will end and the prisoners will be freed. The return of the Lord is to be in the understanding of the literal and spiritual meaning of the Word revealed in time for all mankind; and,

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.

Affirmed, this 18th day of the fifth month in the year of our Lord, Redeemer and Savior Jesus the Anointed One two thousand five and in the two hundred and twenty eighth year of our Independence.

Gregory Karl Davis
C/o David W. Davis
340 River Valley Road
Atlanta, Georgia

He who becomes a soldier of Christ has ceased to be a soldier of the world, nor is he entitled to any reward who acknowledges no duty.

000093

Deed Book 40031 Pg 383
Juanita Hicks
Clerk of Superior Court
Fulton County, Georgia